

LEVEL 4

1. AIS-MS-L-003 Lead Auditor ISO 14001: 2004/ ISO 9001: 2000 AIS-MS-L-004/ OHSAS 18001: 1999 AIS-MS-L-005

Course Overview/Aim:

These set of courses provides detailed background, including hands on training that ensures your staff who conduct audits in your organization have the knowledge, experience and qualification to conduct audits effectively.

Delegates that complete the course successfully will receive an IRCA independently accredited certificate for lead auditors. The course is jointly run with BSI International BV.

Aims

At the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Understand ISO 9000, 14000 and OHSAS 18000 standards
- Knowledge of auditing principles
- Conducting audits

Who to Attend

HSE Advisors with experience in implementing and auditing Management Systems

Course Duration:

5 days

Time:

8:00am - 4:30pm daily

Cost

Price on request

2 AIS-PTW-411: PTW Administration and Control

Course Overview:

This course provides an introduction to the Permit To Work System. It puts particular attention on worksite control.

It consists of interactive sessions and is designed for supervisors, team leaders and managers.

Aims

The course will help individuals

At the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Understand the concept of permit to work and how organizations can achieve it
- Design a permit to work system
- Roll out and supervise permit to work implementation
- Supervise work to 'permit to work' standard

Course Materials:

All materials presented during the course, supplementary notes and exercises.

Who to Attend

Supervisors, HSE Advisors & Managers

Course Duration:

2 days

Time:

8:00am - 4:30pm daily

Cost

Price on request